

Shelby County Genealogical Society
Membership Application

Founded in 1975, the Shelby County Genealogical Society began publishing its newsletter, Shelbyana, in October 1979. We publish all manner of genealogical material and historical items that might assist the family historian/genealogist with Shelby County, Ohio, connections.

All members of SCGS receive Shelbyana each January, April, July, and October.

Dues are $16.00 per year, individual or couple, running January 1 through December 31.

The Society meets the second Tuesday of each month, 7 p.m., at the Ross Historical Center, 201 N. Main Ave., Sidney. Visitors are welcome. No meeting in December.

Queries are welcome, published free for members. Research help available on request.
